Dr. Deborah H. How has been a Center Representative for The Royal Conservatory Music Development Program for over 10 years. She specializes in both advanced performance studies (piano, flute, chamber music) and academic music studies (literature, theory, history), maintaining a private music studio with national-level competition winners in both performance and theory/composition. She received her PhD from the USC Thornton School of Music and will receive her MBA from the UMass Amherst Isenberg School of Management in August 2015.

Dr. How currently holds the positions of Composer's Today State Adjudicator Coordinator for MTAC, Treasurer and Certificate of Merit Chair of MTAC Santa Monica Bay, and Treasurer of Mu Phi Epsilon Los Angeles Alumni Chapter. She sits on the board of the Southwestern Youth Music Festival (SYMF) and is Executive Director of the Moments of Music Foundation Concerto Competition for Adults & Teachers. She is also the CEO & Co-Founder of BRAVURA innovations and President & Co-Founder of the Westside Music Foundation (501c3 charity).
